Merry Christmas! and Happy Hanukkah!

Everyone ready for Christmas?! Not me! I'm still reliving this year's Christmas Shows at the Carrollwood Cultural Center and the Straz Center for the Performing Arts. I don't know about you, but I sure am glad Santa found that key. I'm counting on him to swoop in and save the day! See pages 3 through 5 for pictures and notes about the shows.

Need something to do this Friday night? Head out to the International Mall to listen to Compound Interest singing at the Grand opening of The Art of Shaving. Go on out there and show your support.

Our Director of the past 2+ years, Steve Jamison, leaves us now to start on a new chapter in his Barbershop life. Check out page 6 for a special collage put together especially for him that was presented to him at the last rehearsal of the year.

It's time now to settle in for a long winter's nap. See you at the Installation of Officers Banquet January 10th! If you aren't there, watch for the first issue of 2012 coming out on January 15th! It is sure to be chocked full of information about the new direction of the chorus.

From The President

Thanks to all for helping make the Christmas Shows a great success.

Thanks to Steve, thanks to the Assistant Directors, thanks to everyone on stage for the music, and thanks to everyone who came out to support us by seeing the show!

Thanks also to Dan and all the cast members, and the coaches, Maggie and Danny Scott, and Kathy Sutton, the costumer.

A hearty thank you to the guys that put up the risers before rehearsal, and loaded the trailer with risers, the jail, and the presents afterwards.

Thanks to the crew, and everyone that helped set up and tear down. Big thanks to all that helped tear down and pack up at Straz! That was awesome.

Merry Christmas, Happy Hanukkah, and a Happy New Year!
— Larry Clapp, President

On Monday November 28th, some of the Heralds got up extra early in order to appear on FOX Channel 13, all decked out in their tuxedos at 7am. :) Unfortunately, there was an error in the last issue of the HERALD directing everyone to watch a different TV station. Oops! Hope you got a chance to see them on TV. If you didn't, check out this link, or even if you did see them and just want to again....

Thank you Steve for 2 1/2 years of dedication!

As Steve Jamison moves to Director Emeritus this month, President Larry Clapp offers a gift to start Steve on his journey in to his future. He presented Steve with the start of a house boat fund for which Steve and Barb can continue to grow or use however they see fit! John Pennington presented Steve with a "Thanks for the Memories" collage put together with the help of a few Angels. Good luck in whatever you do Steve.

May our paths cross again.

A Little Christmas Story For You

Contributed by Doug McDonald

When four of Santa's elves got sick, the trainee elves did not produce toys as fast as the regular ones, and Santa began to feel the Pre-Christmas pressure.

Then Mrs. Claus told Santa her Mother was coming to visit, which stressed Santa even more.

When he went to harness the reindeer, he found that three of them were about to give birth and two others had jumped the fence and were out, Heaven knows where.

Then when he began to load the sleigh, one of the floorboards cracked, the toy bag fell to the ground and all the toys were scattered.

Frustrated, Santa went in the house for a cup of apple cider and a shot of rum. When he went to the cupboard, he discovered the elves had drunk all the cider and hidden the liquor. In his frustration, he accidentally dropped the cider jug, and it broke into hundreds of little glass pieces all over the kitchen floor. He went to get the broom and found the mice had eaten all the straw off the end of the broom.

Just then the doorbell rang, and an irritated Santa marched to the door, yanked it open, and there stood a little angel with a great big Christmas tree.

The angel said very cheerfully, "Merry Christmas, Santa. Isn't this a lovely day? I have a beautiful tree for you. Where would you like me to stick it?"

And so began the tradition of the little angel on top of the Christmas tree.

Not a lot of people know this.

Singing Valentines

ATTENTION HERALDS....

There is an opportunity to get together between now and January 10th for the Singing Valentines repertoire that Alex Boltenko collected and put here on his quartet website:
http://barbershopquartet.us/SV_music.html

Steve Cragg offers his church facility to host the quartets. The address is Terrace Palms Community Church
 9620 Davis Rd, Tampa, FL 33637

Let Alex know if your quartet will sing, or if you want to sing. If you don't have a quartet, no problem. Let Alex know what part you can sing (and switching parts is totally acceptable) Tentative meeting times on 12/26 or 12/28 at 6:30p.m. All interested parties should look up the music and be ready to sing by that time. Established quartets are invited as well.
